

..with a touch of Rockhampton

Mayhem, Mysteries & Memories

A collection of stories and poems from U3A Rockhampton & District Inc. writers featuring drawings from the present and past members of U3A's Pencil Drawing Group

Grandma had a talking pet cockatoo that had picked up its vocabulary from its owner. During one of our visits a policeman came to the door..

...A Visit from Grandma

It is understood that there are upwards of ten thousand rhinos inhabiting the bush along the sheer slopes of Mount Archer.

...Rocky's Rhino Plague

...with a touch of Rockhampton

Mayhem, Mysteries & Memories

The city of Rockhampton has its share of haunted buildings and ghostly apparitions....

...Ghost Haunts in Rockhampton

I wondered if my newly met girlfriend had managed to sneak out without being seen..

... A Night on the Town

He took a step backwards and briefly closed his eyes to block sight of his temptress...

... Seduction

I've got a space between my ears where once I had a brain. It's very inconvenient; I'd like it back again

... Something's Missing

Then I felt a hard nudge on my shoulder!....

I was too young to die.

...A Dangerous Encounter

Before she could take a step, a strong arm circled her waist from behind and a large hand firmed over her mouth.

...The Blood Trail